In the process of writing some of my other books, most notably in The Angel Series, this book quite by accident came into being. I had published The Angel Jon in 2007, and was following up with the second in the series, The Archangel Michael, when the idea for California Christian Criminal and/or Dusty's Book of Before & After Salvation Poetry With Ax-Grindings came to the fore. (As you can see, that long winded title has been shortened quite a bit.)

This was as I had at least 100 pages of before-and-after mostly humorous Salvation poetry, and didn't know what to do with it. These poems dated back 44 years worth of accumulation. I was haphazardly inserting them into The Archangel Michael when a friend, Ron Seward, advised that he thought that I should put a precursor to the poems that actually described events in my life that some of the poems described. Like "Sunk By A Drunk," or "Key Weshark," and so on. Then were all the multi-page epic funny poems that described Biblical characters and stories.

So, once started on that path, this book became almost an autobiography, and right in the middle of writing The Archangel Michael, I flat stopped, and wrote this in about three months flat, as a third of it is poetry already written, and the rest is about real things and events that didn't take anywhere close to as long to put down as creating a fictional book out of whole cloth.

The third book in The Angel Series is Angels, Demons, & Spiritual Warfare, and in the middle of writing that, for entertainment, I am writing Guardians of Sentience, which is science fiction.

What will be released when, who knows, as the editing, layout, artwork, and so on takes quite a while. But the first three books are done, and you can find my writings at Tate Publishing. I hope you enjoy.

God Bless You
Richard Gartner
